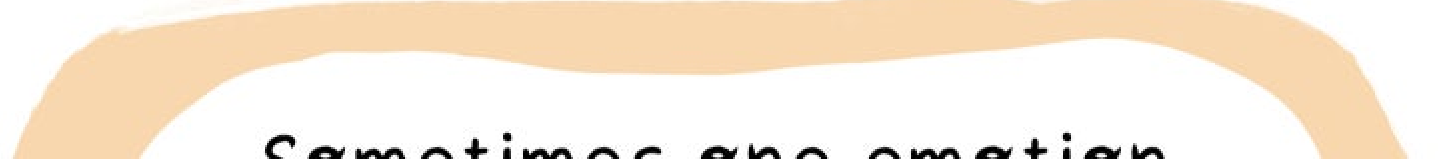
Today, we'll be talking about emotional intelligence for felines.
Introducing:
The Emotion Gang.

This is Hungry and he has an appetite.
This one is Angry...
He's angry because he's small.

And these two are Zoomies and Dread.
An unlikely duo.



Sometimes one emotion overpowers another, merging and seizing control.
C'mon Hangry, spit him out.

Hold up!
Some emotions are missing.

Has anybody seen Anxiety?
